It's the last day of school of David Sonnenschein's life. It could have been a wonderful day, if it weren't for a stupid old lady, a guy named Hoffman, and the most beautiful girl in the world. . .

CONTENT

David Sonnenschein knows exactly how the last school day of his life should be. A goodbye party with lots of tequila and a finale begging to be filmed. And a kiss from Kelly. Or better yet, a thousand kisses from Kelly. But for that to happen, he would have to tell her how he feels about her first. Too bad, really, that life doesn't stick to the screen play.

..

"A coming-of-age snapshot in a wonderfully laconic tone of voice that recalls Salinger's Catcher in the Rye." (Frankfurter Rundschau).

THE AUTHOR

Jochen Till, born in 1966, originally wanted to be a rock star. But one day a muse entered his life and he wrote his first novel. In the meantime he devotes his time almost exclusively to writing, in addition to his job in a comic-strip store.
